CONSERVATIVE ARMY AND NAVY UNIOR.

COMBRUATIVE ABBY AND NAVY UNION.—
The regular weekly meaning of this association we hold last evening in their recement Fant's Building; the Franciscus. Cod. O'Belrone, in the chair, and Cogs. Redy and secretary.

B. B. Burns, Cook. Chas. Alled, Cot. J. T. Closs, Capt. Buth, and High. Travelak, were nominated as members of the amendation.

Cogs. Auxile, from the Committee on Cradentials, required favorably on a large number of nominations and they were elected as members of the asbroadalon.

these and they were elected as members of the asisolitation.

Capt. O'Hagan offered the following preamble and resolution, which was unanimously adopted:
Whereas a number of American citizens are incurrented in Canadian prisons, and are about to raffer the ignominitues punishment of death on the useful for alleged complicity with the Festens;
and whereas these mea have worn the uniform of the American army with hunor, and battled for freedom under its flag; therefore, be it Reselved That we, the conservative sailors and soldiers of the United States, to carrassity condemn able much tried by which these then are condemned to die, and wall on all who sympathics with the oppressed and about tyranny to use every effort consistent with the Senor and dignity of the American people to procure their immediate release.
Capt. McGensati Ghreet the following; which was laid over under the rules:

THE SHOOTIES OF OFFICER CURRINGHAM.

THE SHOOTIES OF OFFICER CUMMINGHAM.—We yestering marriag stated that Officer Sherwood, of Georgetown, was shot by a negro soldier, while attempting to arrest him. This was an error. We should have said Officer Cunningham. The facts in the case show that Edward Letcher and Thomas Gurton, of company A, 107th United States colored twoops, were creating a disturbance with some parties in front of Reynolds store, on Bridge atreet. The negroes had their pistols out when the officers them. Officer Gunningham arrested Gurton, and Officer Harper wont after Letcher. When the officer was nearly up to him, Letcher presented his pistol, and, with an oath, threshead to shoot the officer if he came any nearre. Officer Cunningham came to the satisfance of Mr. Harper, and when about fifteen feet from Letcher the latter fired at the officer, the ball striking him below the knee, and lodging in the calf of the leg. Letcher them made his eccape, but yesterday morning he was arrested at Fort Cochrane by Officer Paxon, and held for a hearing before Jartice Buckey.

The Funkral or Mr. Hanny, — Yesterday and held for a hearing before Jurtice Suckey.

This Funkman of Mr. Henny.—Yesterday offerences the funeral of the late Frank Henry took place from his residence, off of street, between Second and Third streets east, and was attended by a large number of his relatives and friends, members of the city press, and Washington correspondents for distant papers. The officiating minister was the Rev. Dr. Hoynton, who delivared a very able and impressive discourse. The body was enclosed in a handsome walnut coffin with silver mountings. The pull because were gentlemen connected with the press in this and other cities, and the funeral servings proceeded to the Congrussianal Consciency, where the body was interred. Many were the Irisade who stood around the grave of their lates are needed, and humbly asked of God to care for and protect his widow and orphans in this their hour of affliction.

WANTED TO GET MARRIED BUT GOT IN JAIL.

Eventuedays morning, about one o'clock, Serguant Institution, of the Bighth precinct, arrested a colored man, named Games Dyson, for assault and above. FORTRAITS OF ALL OFFICERS, of both services, who have distinguished themselves in the lamby that Byson, who boarded at the house of Celia, offered his heart and hand to her, but she declined to hescens his better-half. Byson beams angry and swore she should marry him, if not he would hill her when he caught her on the street. Not flading her out of the house, he armed himself with a large stone, went in and threw it at Cella. Not flading her out of the house, he armed himself with a large stone, went in and threw it at Cella. Not flading her out of the house, he armed himself with a large stone, went in and threw it at Cella. Not flading her out of the head and making a very ugly would. He was about to indict further injury, when a colored man who was near interfered. Dyson then ran, but was captured by Serguant Harrison and sent to jail for court by Justice Handy.

CRIMINAL COURT—Judge Olin.—(Edward C. Carrington, eq., District Attorney, prescenting.)
Yesterday morning the case of Gilbert Vander-werken, indicated for assault and battery with intent to kill George Hill, on the 7th day of September, 1861, in Georgetown, was taken up.
This case was tried at the June term, 1862, but the jury being unable to agree upon a verdict, was discharged by the court. It has several times been fixed for trial since, but postponed on account of engagements of counsel, absence of witnesses, &c. Joseph H. Bradley, fix., for defence. The trial will be concluded to-day.

A RAID ON FOUR GUN BAYERN—A hand

will be concluded to-day.

A RAID ON FOUR GUN BAYTERY.—About half past 1 o clock yesterday moraing Officers Ray, Sheid and Wilson, of the Second ward, heard a disturbance in the house in Four Gun Battery, at the corner of Rierenth and B streats. The officer real in and arrested the proprietress, with five women and one man. They were all locked up, and vesterday morating had a learing before Taglice Mursell. Ellen was held for a further hearing on a charge of keeping a disorderly house, and the others were fined 25 seah.

GRAND LARCENY.—Detectives Kelly and Bigley yesterday arrested Thomas Crocker, John Booker and Michael Modbe, three negro soldiers, on the charge of stealing a gold watch and chain, valued at $250, from Major F. H. Hathaway, on Saitrday night lest. A white woman, named Cecils Burke, was arrested as accessory, and all the parties are held for a bearing at police headquarters. The watch has not been recovered.

STEALING A PIG.—James White and James Marshall, two colored boys, were arrested in the First ward on Wednesday night by Officers Gramp and Stinchcomb, for stealing a pig from James Blanchfield, on Twenty-sixth street, between I and K streets. The boys drove the pig to their place near by, where they killed it. The meat was recovered by the officers, and the boys sent to jail for court by Justice Drury.

CONCRALED WEAPONS.—Vincent Carter, colored, was arrested in the Seventh ward, on Wednesday, by Officer Ashton, for earrying concasted weapons. He was taken before Justice Handy, who sentenced him to pay a fine of $20, and in dafault of payment he was sent to the workhouse.
